R. H. S. CALENDAR

We began our school year on September 4, which was registration day. Regular classes began on the fifth. Everything was quiet until the fifteenth, when we played our first home football game against Hanna. On the twenty-second, we played host to the Lyman Eagles. The rest of the month passed uneventfully as did the first part of October. On the twelfth, however, we had the first National School Assembly of the year—Steeplejack and Jill. Time passed until the twentieth, when the football team journeyed to Hanna. The next big event was the successful card party sponsored by the journalism class on October 24th to raise money for the annual. October 27th found Reliance's representatives to the journalism conference, Joy DuPont, Ronnie Wilson, Robert Burns, and Florence Delgado, on their way to Laramie.

November got off to a bang-up start on the sixth, when Albert Wilcox, singing star of the National School Assemblies, appeared before the student body. The ninth was the juniors' big day—the day of the junior play, "Professor How Could You?" Band members enjoyed a trip to Jackson on the seventeenth, for the music festival. Everyone was now eagerly anticipating the twenty-third and the long-awaited Thanksgiving vacation. With this, November became just another memory.

The first of December was a great day for the seniors, for it was on this day that they gave their Senior Hop, with "Stardust" as its theme. The Pirates were hosts at the first basketball game of the year against Mountain View on December 8. Their next games were also played on their home court against Afton on December 15, and Hanna on the sixteenth. During Christmas vacation, which began on the twenty-second, the Pirates went to Hanna on December 28, and were guests of Rawlins on the twenty-ninth.

January was uneventful until the sixth, when the Pirates played Jackson at Jackson. On the eighth, we were treated to another National School Assembly, staged this time by a dance team, the Garcias. The Rawlins Outlaws were our guests on January 11, as were Green River Wolves on the thirteenth. On the nineteenth and twentieth, it was the Pirates' turn to be guests, when they traveled to Afton and Kemmerer. Our next games also saw the team on the road, this time to Evanston and Mountain View on January 26 and 27. January 30 found the team matching wits and brawn against the mighty Tigers. Our agile quintet proved too much for the Bengals, and they went home with a 39-37 defeat.

Everyone was in high spirits when February first rolled around, for that was the date that the journalism class and the Home Ec. girls sponsored their gala carnival. On February third, the Pirates suffered a defeat at the hands of the Superior Dragons on the Dragon court. The Pirates' next engagement was scheduled for February 6, when they played Lyman at Reliance. On February 10, the Pirates took a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of a vengeful Bengal team, playing at Rock Springs. February 12th was the next interesting date on the calendar when another National School Assembly, Wheeler's Melo Marimbas, was presented. The week end of February 16 and 17 found the Pirates playing host to the Evanston Red Devils and the Kemmerer Rangers. The Superior Dragons and the Lyman Eagles were met in two games on February 26 and 27. February 26th presented an opportunity to hear the concertiers, entertainers from the National School Assemblies. Pirate cagers traveled to Green River on the twenty-eighth to challenge the Mighty Wolves.

March got off to a good start with the junior high team traveling to Evanston the second and third for the tournament. The Pirates were busy on the third also, when they were hosts to the Jackson Broncs. The next event of importance was the district tournament, held in Green River on March 8, 9, and 10. After many rehearsals, the Senior Operetta, "Sun-bonnet Girl," appeared. Beginning on March 28, the students of R.H.S. enjoyed a five-day spring vacation, during which many fans went to Laramie to the state basketball tournament.

On April 2, the National School Assemblies presented an educational program on science. The F.H.A. girls went to Laramie on April 5 and 6 for the state meeting. The Junior High had a big day on the tenth, when they presented their operetta, "Paints and Patches." Friday and Saturday, April 13 and 14, gave some band members an opportunity to attend the Green River inter-school concert. April 27th was the day the seniors presented their last stage production, a thrilling mystery.

The first event of the last month of school was the Kemmerer music festival, held on May 3 and 4. On May 11th the juniors realized a life-long dream, when amid lovely decorations and dreamy music they presented the 1951 Junior Prom. May 18th was the end for the seniors, for this was the day that they were officially granted a pardon. The week following, however, was both a busy one and a memorable one for them. The week started on the twentieth with Baccalaureate. May 22nd was senior sneak day, and the twenty-third was one of the biggest days in their lives—Commencement. Then came goodbye to R.H.S.—the last day of school, May 25.

CLASS HISTORY

Boarding the Good Ship "Pirate" with a crew of 29, the present seniors began one of the most important phases of their lives as "frosh" in high school.

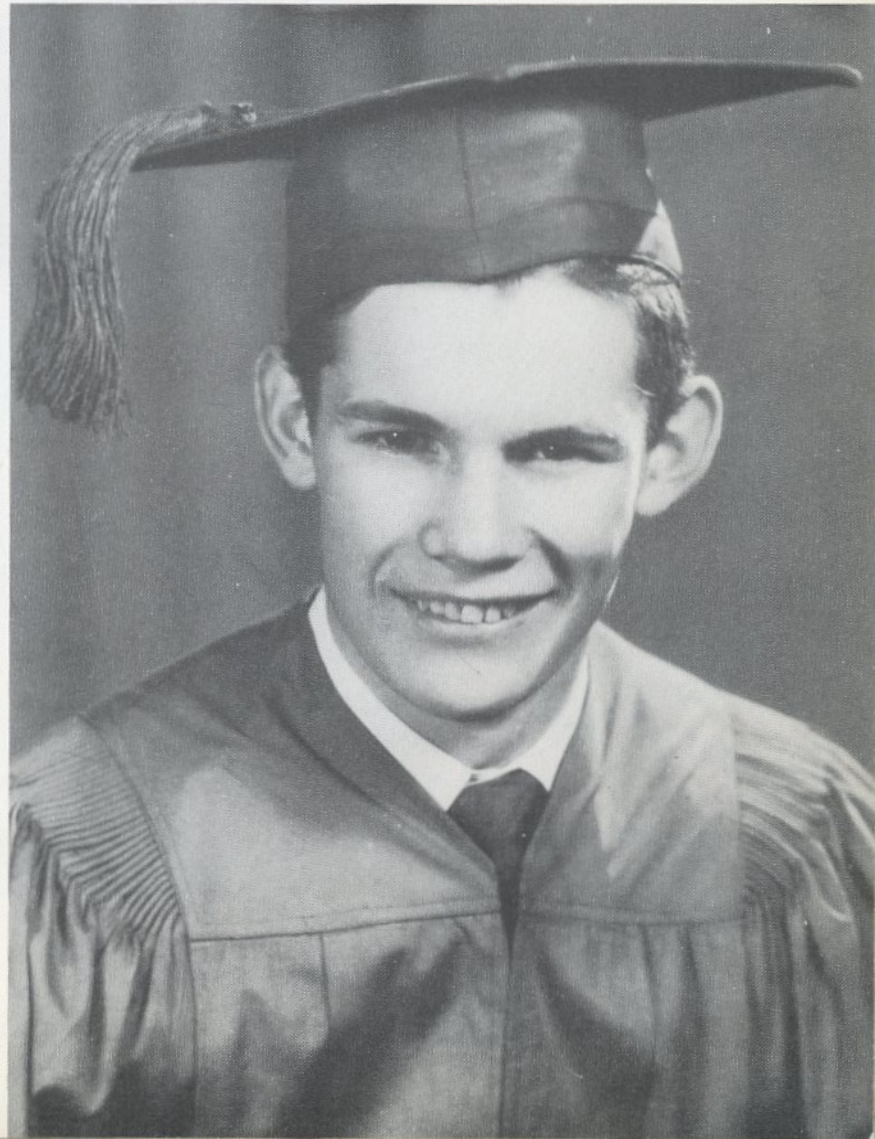

Mr. Pearson guided this anxious group, with help coming from Bob Burns as President; Ronnie Wilson, Vice President; and Donna Dernovich, Secretary-Treasurer. Soon after school had taken up, the freshmen were officially accepted into high school by undergoing the trials and tribulations of initiation. Florence Delgado was elected cheerleader.

Climbing up the ladder a step, we began the school season of 48-49 as sophomores. Mr. Tom Manatos took over the wheel of the ship this time, helped along by Blaine Potter, President; Jane Nelson, Vice President; and Lucille Smith, Secretary-Treasurer. Walt Sawick and Lucille Smith represented the sophomores at the Sweetheart Ball, as candidates for king and queen. Three members of our class, Marilyn Rollins, Rosa Bergandi and Florence Delgado, were elected to the cheering squad. Our sophomore year ended with a picnic at Green River.

The rough seas were beginning to become smoother while we were nearing completion as juniors. Mr. M. A. Nyquist was head of the crew, aided by Jane Nelson, President; Florence Delgado, Vice President; and Donna Gibbs, Secretary-Treasurer. The honors of homecoming went to the junior class as they had both of their candidates remain in the finals of the contest for queen. Jane Nelson was elected queen with Florence Delgado as her attendant. Once again Marilyn, Rosa and Florence were on the cheering squad. Finally the big day came when our class rings arrived on November 16. Under the direction of Miss Regina Black, the junior class presented a hill-billy production, "The Campbells Are Coming," on November 22. Members of the cast were Joy DuPont, Ronnie Wilson, Walt Sawick, Bob Burns, Bob Starrett, Lucy Cabre, Donna Gibbs, Florence Delgado, Janie Nelson and Jack Green. The last big event that we were to sponsor as juniors was the junior prom on April 14. "Red Sails In The Sunset" was chosen as the theme. Marilyn Rollins and Rosa Bergandi attended Lucille Smith as queen. When the juniors took over the duties of the Sand staff in April, Joy DuPont was elected Editor; Robert Burns, Assistant Editor; and Ronnie Wilson, Business Manager. The climax of our junior year came in escorting the seniors to the stage on Commencement night. Ronnie Wilson and Jane Nelson attended Boys' State and Girls' State respectively as representatives from Reliance.

Reaching the top of the ladder with a crew of 21, which soon dwindled to 17, our ultimate goal was becoming nearer. Mr. M. A. Nyquist again took over the duties of Sponsor, this time assisted by Bob Burns, President; Dorothy Bollinger, Vice President; and Kathleen Galloway, Secretary-Treasurer. After Dorothy's and Kathleen's marriages, their offices were filled by Dolores Lumsden and Marilyn Rollins. Florence Delgado and Janie Nelson were elected to the cheering squad. To assume the duties of our yearbook we chose Florence Delgado as Editor; Tom Edwards, Assistant Editor; Robert Burns, Business Manager; and Donna Gibbs to assist Bob. Donna Gibbs entered the Wool contest in Rock Springs on November 27 with a suit she had made. Joy DuPont, Florence Delgado, Ronnie Wilson and Robert Burns attended the journalism conference in Laramie. "Stardust" was chosen as the setting of our senior hop, which we sponsored on December 1. Five boys from the senior class received white Lettermen's sweaters. They were Bob Burns, Cipy Cordova, Blaine Potter, Walt Sawick and Ronnie Wilson. Walt Sawick and Florence Delgado were elected as yearbook king and queen. Donna Gibbs and Ronnie Wilson were candidates for carnival king and queen. On April 27 we presented our Senior Play, a mystery-comedy. On Monday of Senior Week (May 20-25) we held Class Day in which all seniors participated. After Baccalaureate on May 20, and Commencement on May 23, the class of '51 were ready to sail on to wider and higher horizons.

Miami, Florida
December 17, 1960.

Dear Lucille,

It seemed to me that it was time to look up some of our old classmates after ten years.

That shop of yours and Joy DuPont's, "The Hairnet" is being well advertised as the best in the West. How does the California climate agree with you by now? Marilyn Rollins, the famous movie star, says her "Daisy Mae" hairdo is one of your specialties. Her leading man in "The Yokum Story," Robert Burns, and their director, Jack Green, are both located near you. Did you know?

Rosa Bergandi has her own dress shop with Lucy Cabre as her chief model. These two have built up a prosperous business with Delores Lumsden as head buyer.

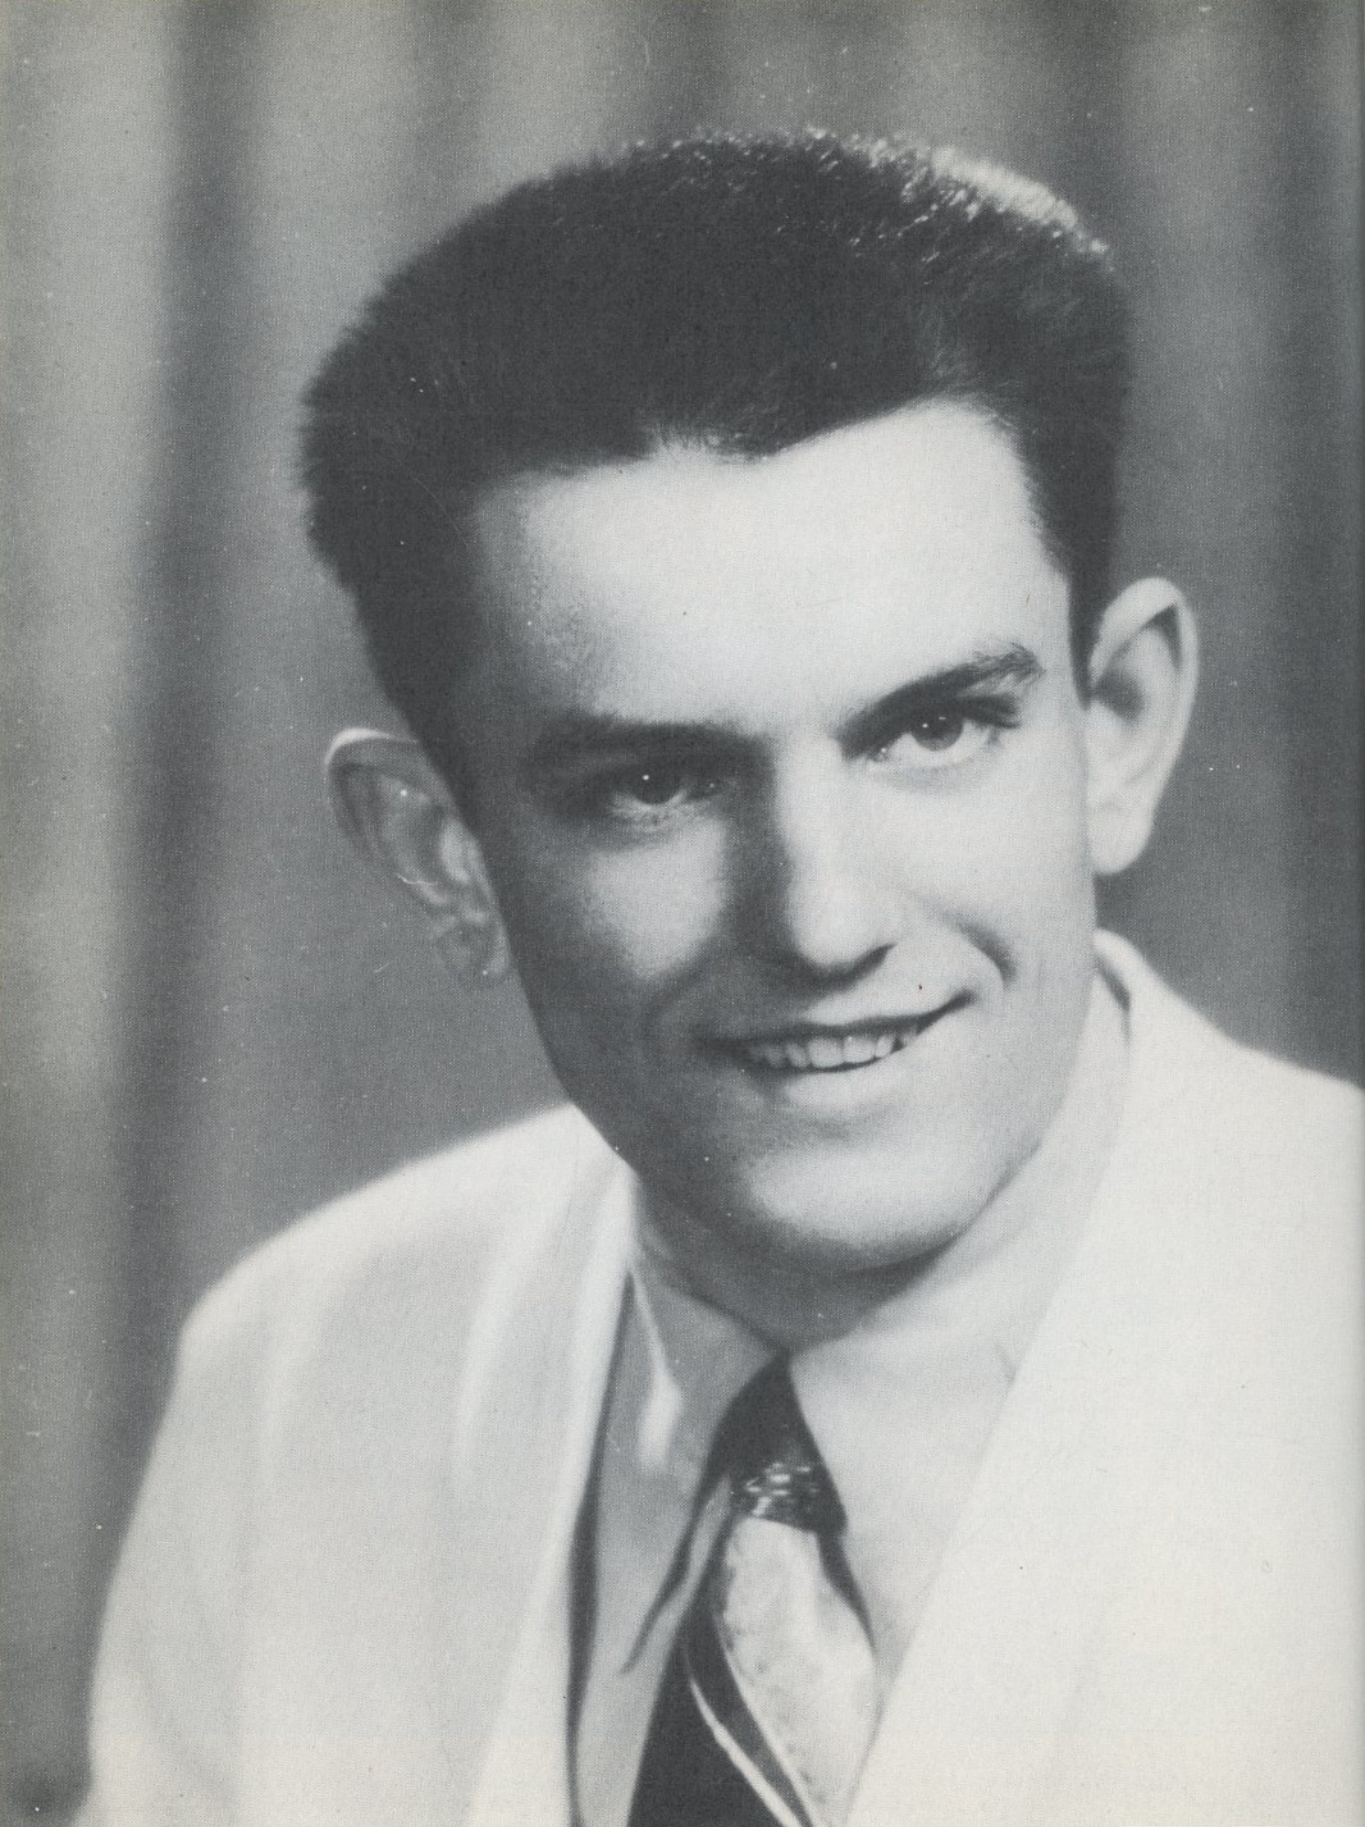

Reliances's new superintendent and home ec instructor, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wilson (the former Donna Gibbs) are making vast changes in the regular schedule. The only solids are study halls. Jane Nelson, the commerce teacher, thinks this system will eventually have atomic results.

Manila, Utah, the famous movie star resort, now has a new mayor, Blaine Potter. He recently built Potter Institute, for which James Kelley, the well versed English professor, was obtained.

Wyoming has recently elected a governor, and believe it or not, it is one of our classmates, Tom Edwards. Florence Delgado, his private secretary, and Cipy Cordova and Walter Sawick, his press agent and campaign manager respectively, were quite pleased with themselves for having helped him attain this goal.

I have now become a fiction writer, as you can easily see from this letter.

Love, from your old classmate,
